

Introduction

The first of the major prophets is Isaiah. God instructed him to bring a message of warning and hope to the rebellious nation of Israel. Through his message, we see the character of God; his grace, mercy, and justice displayed.

This month, we will be reading through the book of Isaiah. This book is Isaiah’s message from God to the Israelites. The first half of the book is full of warnings of judgment on Israel for their sin and rebellion and foreshadowing to the coming exile to Babylon. But amidst the warnings, there is also a message of hope where God promises to send a Messiah who will bring the Kingdom of Heaven and create a new Jerusalem. This book is a great reminder that God’s justice doesn’t mean he is abandoning his promises.

While You Read

Read each chapter slowly and carefully. Underline, highlight or mark anything that stands out to you. Take particular note of what you learn about God and his promises to Israel. Make a list of these things in your journal as you go.

Take time after you read to journal and reflect on what you learned. Write down any questions you have or things that you want to learn more about. Then find a time to talk to a parent, small group leader, or pastor about those things.
