

Introduction

Our world is full of so much evil. We don't have to look very far to see brokenness and sin, both around and within us. Sometimes, this darkness can overwhelm us and it can feel hopeless. But over it all, God has been, is, and will always be sovereign. He is just, good, and merciful and nothing escapes His notice.

This month we will be reading through the book of Ezekiel. Ezekiel was a priest who was taken into exile in Babylon. God calls him to be a prophet and warn Israel of a second Babylonian attack on Jerusalem because of their sin and idol worship. This book walks through various parables portraying Israel's rebellion and idolatry. It highlights both the graveness of their sin but also the goodness of God that he offers hope and restoration.

While You Read

Read each chapter slowly and carefully. Underline, highlight, or mark anything that stands out to you. As you read, make a list of repeated words or phrases (Son of man, Sovereign LORD, "Then they will know that I am the LORD their God") that you notice. Remember to look for God's sovereignty throughout the story.

Take time after you read to journal and reflect on what you learned. Write down any questions you have or things that you want to learn more about. Then find a time to talk to a parent, small group leader, or pastor about those things.
