

Introduction

This month, you will read several letters from the apostle Paul to churches he is teaching. Each of these letters is addressed to a specific Church with unique strengths, weaknesses, and surroundings. It is important to remember that these letters are written to these specific churches, and there may be some parts that feel confusing to you. During your reading, try your best to put yourself in the shoes of the people at each church. What are their strengths, weaknesses, worries, and surroundings? (If you or your parents have a study Bible, try reading the "Introduction" section before reading to learn more about each church) Asking these questions can help make sense of many things that might seem unclear. Paul is helping these Christians understand how to follow Christ, and these words help us understand Christ too.

As you go through the reading each day, write down your answers to these questions: What did this passage teach you about God? What did it teach you about humanity? Did you see the gospel in this passage? Were there any commands given for how you should live? What is something new you learned through this passage?

Weekly Assignment

Each week, come up with one question that you have from the week's reading. Once you have written down that question, go and ask it to a parent, grandparent, small group leader, or any other trustworthy adult in your life.

Memory Challenge

Question: Since no one can keep the law, what is its purpose?

Answer: That we may know the holy nature of God, and the sinful nature of our hearts; and thus our need of a Savior.

Passage: Romans 3:20

For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.
